

SongFarmer: an artist who uses their music to make their families, their hometowns and their careers better. It's more than money ... it's about the sheer love of music.

Start a hometown SongFarmers Music Club and Facebook page

Start a SongFarmers community music club on your front porch, your living room, wherever folks can gather. ... it's a simple local gathering of friends to pick and sing on a regular basis. Here's some guidelines:

a) create a Facebook page that looks like this:
"SongFarmers of (your hometown)" spell "SongFarmers" as one word, capitol F, with the 's' at the end.

b) Always use and link everything to the SongFarmers.org website.

c) Your SongFarmers local gatherings should always be free, pot luck and involve as many kids as you can. One of the amazing things about the WoodSongs Gathering was the vibrant seedling community of young players. It was amazing!

d) Many others have already started one up. Its easy, it's FREE and it's FUN. Do it for the sheer joy of community and playing music.

e) Let us know you are doing it and send an email to WFPA@woodsongs.com

f) everyone should be encouraged to become active members of the WoodSongs Front Porch Association and attend our next Gathering. It's easy and very cheap, membership supports the WoodSongs Classroom projects. Members get FREE tickets to the WoodSongs Gathering on September 23 and 24, 2016. Sign up here: SongFarmers.org or call call 859-255-5700

g) and post a lot of ding-dang pictures!

Michael Sautter

